

2011 JSSL Championship Meet

21 July, 2011 at

Stanford University's Avery Aquatics Center

All JSSL club members are invited to an

Avery walk-through before the JSSL Championship meet (self-guided)

Schedule

- 1:00PM, Thursday, 21 July
- JSSL swimmers and adults may be in the facility for 45 minutes - until 1:45PM

Parking

- Metered parking is available in the Varsity Lot immediately east of Avery - the El Camino side
- Free parking is available in the eucalyptus grove between the stadium and El Camino Real

Facility Entrance

- The facility may be entered from the west side - near Arrillaga Plaza – the side furthest from El Camino Real.

Access

- JSSL children and their accompanying adult(s) may walk through the Avery bleacher area, volunteer check in/upper clerk of course area and Avery and Baker pool deck areas.
- All children must be accompanied by adults.
- Each club must have at least one adult familiar with Avery and JSSL's champs meet with their group to help guide the walk-through.
- Clubs are welcome to have a coach (or coaches) come along.

Restrictions

- No swimming
- No walking on the bulkhead
- No standing on the starting blocks

Contact

- For inquiries about this walk-through, please contact Fiona Gersh via email: gershfamily@sbcglobal.net